Cole left Monday night's win over the St. Louis Cardinals after having his left hand wrapped. He will be re-evaluated by team doctors Tuesday. "He walked off as a walk-off win, looking like he's ready to go," Huntington said of Cole's post-game comments. Cole surrendered a solo home run to Marcell Ozuna to open the bottom of the 10th inning. The home run was the first allowed by Cole in his career. But he struck out Yadier Molina and Ryan Braun to end the inning, keeping the game scoreless. Cole is 2-1 with a 1.32 ERA this season. --Field Level MediaThe city government's plan to build a $5 million police and fire training center at Roosevelt Avenue, between Markham and
