Features Key:

- Innovative Create-a-Player feature lets you build up your gaming experience and take your team and the Challenge to the next level. In this 16-month free-to-play subscription service, you'll unlock and earn virtual card packs with in-game content as you create unique, virtual creations from over 70 real-life global stars – all the while improving your Ultimate Team by becoming the absolute player you are.
- Choose your role with the Be A Pro feature – from central defender to goalkeeper, as well as being able to switch from striker to attacking midfielder on the fly. You decide how to spread the creative goals and support.
- FIFA 22 is the first FIFA game ever to see the on-pitch action captured by 22 real-life players. Thanks to new, real-time motion-capture technology, 23 total actions are captured in high-definition (1080p). These are then re-synthesized into full-body animations with realistic movement.
- Tackle, dribble, shoot and pass with real-world movements. All 24 official on-pitch actions are captured and re-created in-game.
- Add a new attacking dimension with 4 shot types: curling, angled, swinging and spin shots. This allows players to create an accurate and dynamic feeling of on-pitch movements. A variety of animations can be added to the ball to create shots that vary in terms of speed, power and spin. All damage to the ball also has a specific impact on it, before it dips and drops, and then explodes into highlights.
- 9 real-world player attributes that can be adjusted create many different types of actions and gestures: left- and right-footed players allow you to imitate different mobility, and use different techniques. With this, your further moves are dynamic, like a right-footed player does a forward dive.

Q: How can I make a logo element of an image a link using CSS? What if I have an image in which I have a logo of some company, and inside of this logo I have a picture, so if I hover over the picture, it changes to a different image. And I want to put a link inside of this logo, something like: How can I do this with CSS only? A: If you can use a div, you can take this as an example

.image { border: 2px solid black; padding: 10px; border-radius: 10px; position: absolute; top: 0; left: 0; z-index: 2; } .logo { display: none; position: relative; border: 2px solid black; padding: 10px; border-radius: 10px; background-color: red; } .logo:hover { background-color: blue; } .text { display: none; position: absolute; border: 2px solid black; padding: 10px; border-radius: 10px; z-index: 3; background-color: blue; }

What's new:

- New Physics: All of the ball physics has been significantly enhanced in FIFA 22, enhancing the ball path, the choices available to a goalkeeper when making a save and improving the pace and unpredictability of a goalkeeper's drop kick. An improved, more realistic connection between the ball and the feet has also been introduced, with the ball more naturally moving away from contact and staying connected to the boots as you control the ball's spin, curve and shot accuracy.
- 5v5 Team Play: Team Play has been significantly enhanced in FIFA 22 with five completely different ways to play. Go on the offensive and attack the opponent by selecting the Playmaker attacking role. Play aggressively in the special Team Up Attack Play. Build up play and press high up the pitch in an intense 4v4 Team Takedown. Play out from the back in a back 5v5 Game of Possession. And in the 5v5 Team Stadium Rush, seek to tackle the opposition before they realise you're there.
- Tactics: The tactical layer has been developed from the game's players to give the manager more power over the flow of play. Use Pitch Concepts to control the type of game and objectives. Perform tactical switches such as relying on the 4-3-3 formation as your team rotates (or the 4-1-3-2-6 tactically-dependent formation as your team presses). And make the most of the tactical view to plan your next move.
- FIFA Ultimate Team: Reworked and significantly enhanced with the latest technologies available - introduce intelligent Artificial Intelligence into the Ultimate Team manager control, as well as enhancing team management through player appearances, transfers, formations and much more. 24 top global superstars plus 11 FIFA World Cup superstars will be added to build your Ultimate Team in Ultimate Team mode. In addition, you'll find lots of new content and gameplay mechanics have been added, including the Road to the World Cup feature that can be played in both Ultimate Team and Career Mode, Create a Club, Play the latest version of FIFA Ultimate Team Pass, and much more.

FIFA was first launched in 1991 and is the worldwide sports franchise that brings to life the intensity and unpredictability of the real-life sport of football. More than 200 million players around the world enjoy the FIFA Soccer series that has made and continues to make a difference to their lives. Over the past 30 years millions of hours have been spent playing FIFA Soccer. Players can experience a wide range of gameplay innovations and features in FIFA, which include: A commitment to innovation and desire to continue developing and introducing unique features and gameplay, that make our game stand out. A deep, rich and authentic football experience with the FIFA Soccer series. A sense of community that delivers fun, new ways to play and build friendships together. Our mission at EA is to "inspire the human experience in a digital world." We take that mission to heart in our FIFA games, making them one of our major priorities and a driving force in the development of our platform. Are there new gameplay innovations in FIFA 22?

This year, the FIFA 20 engine powered by EA SPORTS is powering a massive rethink of the entire development process, from the highest-level design to the rendering and optimization of the player models. The engine was built to provide new levels of advanced AI and controls, which help the player control players and react quickly to the ever-changing game-state. Each of the 50,000+ distinct player models in FIFA 22 has unique behaviour. Every single player on the pitch has their own unique AI - on and off the ball, and in the air - responding to the strategy of their team and environment. Enjoy 30 years of gameplay innovation in your soccer career, and experience new levels of freedom in your FIFA career. There are many new attributes in FIFA 22 that bring something unique to the game. Possession Changes to the possession algorithm allows your team to possess the ball a greater length of time, creating a higher intensity and level of player involvement in the game. Stamina FIFA 22 includes a Stamina scale designed to prevent stamina players from doing too much running when they need to run. Vision and Movement FIFA 22 has more intelligent movement and movement decisions, including better team-specific movement behaviour. For example: When defending as a centre-back, the ball carrier can make more intelligent runs to stay with their team-mates. The player can use their Vision to track and tackle a player closing on them.
