Your innovative, refreshing, and real perspective has changed my life and it seems that there are others who feel the same. When I first arrived at your Unite the Right protest, a Trump supporter was being brutalized, and I asked myself if I would be willing to stand up to this person. I ended up throwing a drink in his face, after punching his friend in the back of the head as he was crawling away. I was attacked by the other Trump supporters and was knocked down. I couldn't get up, and feared for my life. I didn't know what to do. I didn't know how to respond, so I just went along with the crowd. I was terrified. I couldn't understand why I was being so viciously attacked. Why were all these Trump supporters attacking people? For being black? For being Mexican? For being gay? For speaking out against Trump?
