I'm working on an as3 game and I wanted to have a menu that pops up when the computer is shut off or the power goes out. This is required to prevent the game from overloading. So far I have this: import flash.events.TimerEvent; import flash.events.Event; import flash.events.Event; private function updateTotalTime():void { totalTime += gameTimer.getTimer(); totalTimeText.text = totalTime.toString(); } I have a button set up like so: stopButton.addEventListener(MouseEvent.CLICK, stopTurn); stopTurn(event:MouseEvent):void{ stopButton.enabled = false; } The problem is that you can't hear the timer change in the background music when the game is playing. Is there any way around this? A: You need to set the volume of the music to 0 to prevent the background sound from interfering with the game's timer as you described. It doesn't matter if you're using the NetStream, Video, or Sound classes to play back the music, the volume is controlled using the SoundMixer class. You'll also need to take into consideration the length of the song in order to make sure the game doesn't play it for too long if you decide to change the length of the music you're playing, or if the game is paused. Defining weight in Pregnancy. It is quite natural to weigh yourself, approximately, the first three months of pregnancy. Not only do you have to keep yourself fit for the forthcoming challenges of motherhood, but you also need to understand the impact on your weight. Every woman likes

So I'm just going to have to accept and make the best of it. In this same thread I read an article about makeup used on a child. While this is an entirely different subject from the one I'm addressing, it affected me deeply so I wanted to share it with you. As a mother, I think I can relate to what was written and I hope that it may help you to see the humanity and emotions I am feeling as I share this story. Thank you!

UPDATE 05-24-17: The mom of the baby in the article below has been kind enough to comment on my article about the dark side of makeup. I'm deeply appreciative and humbled by her kind words and support of this site. Thank you Holly! Hello, my name is Holly. My son doesn't live with me, but I am a work-at-home mom of 2. My youngest is 14 months old. I am a fan of most makeup, and even my
