In the film, Lakshmi is having. .Circling toward the truth of the one true King Menu Month: March 2016 For years (decades even) the Christian church has been obsessed with receiving money, "charity". The more they get, the more we think they need. This is a puzzle. If you are a Christian who doesn't believe that you are better than anyone and if you follow Jesus, then why are you so hung up on how much you give? I don't understand, and I think I don't understand it because it's about the people, not the largess, and God's hand (either through the good works of believers or with the help of Holy Spirit) working in behalf of the poor. The truth is that we don't need anyone else's charity. If we really believed this, then we would easily be able to give away what we have; we would not have to rely on others to give to us, but rather give without expecting to receive anything in return. What's the worst thing you can possibly find out about someone you meet in this world? It's not that they're a dictator who will take over the world, they're not an alcoholic, they're not mentally ill, they're not a pedophile...it's that they're a jerk. It's that they lack empathy for others and they get angry when they don c6a93da74d
