You must install the Vag kkl interface so that the com port in the DM is number 1. In this guide, I will describe the installation process of the USB-C-to-USB-A software for connecting Apple laptops to monitors or TVs with USB and VGA interfaces . For this procedure, you will need an Apple computer, laptop, or tablet with a USB port and a USB-A to USB-C cable. I won't be using a mouse, keyboard, etc. All you have to do is plug the cable into the USB port on your laptop and plug the cable into the USB-C/USB-A port on your monitor, TV or other device.
