there are two types of items in the game: material items and player items. material items are items that the player can place in the game. when the player interacts with the item, it creates a dynamic object in the game world. the game uses a default material to render these objects. this is when the 24 players are told to enter the waiting area. when all 24 players are in place, the waiting area is loaded with a round-robin system, where each player has an equal chance of being selected as the next player. when the match is over, the player 1 cartridge is put in the player's slot and the following match is loaded. the waiting area returns after every 24 rounds of play. single-card gameplay mode is accessible from the main screen by tapping the orange vs button at the bottom left of the touch screen. the multiplayer vs mode supports only single-card gameplay, with player 1 as the host with the inserted cartridge and players 24 using the ds download play feature. the vs mode starts in a waiting area, which takes place in a castle interior, as shown from the top screen. it depicts a desert sand-colored wall with a large painting of a cloudy sky, two large pillars located left and right each, a red carpet on the checkered floor that leads up to the wall, and red drapes hanging on the ceiling. once players are in place, the waiting area is loaded with a round-robin system, where each player has an equal chance of being selected as the next player. the waiting area returns after every 24 rounds of play. the game includes a multiplayer vs mode. the mode can be accessed from the title screen by tapping the orange vs button at the bottom left of the touch screen. the vs mode supports only single-card gameplay, with player 1 as the host with the inserted cartridge and players 24 using the ds download play feature. the vs mode starts in a waiting area, which takes place in a castle interior, as shown from the top screen. it depicts a desert sand-colored wall with a large painting of a cloudy sky, two large pillars located left and right each, a red carpet on the checkered floor that leads up to the wall, and red drapes hanging on the ceiling.
